Last Week the First Space Exploration Conference was held in Orlando (January 30 – February 1). The conference was filled to capacity, and Charles Chitwood and I attended.

I attended the Agency Roadmap for Launch Vehicle meeting at KSC February 3 - 4.

The Marshall Association Luncheon was held Thursday, February 3, and Charles Chitwood was the featured speaker. I understand it was the largest attendance for a Marshall Association luncheon thus far.

The Center Director's Budget Rollout is scheduled for Monday, February 14.

The NASA Fiscal Year 2006 budget briefing with NASA Administrator Sean O'Keefe is scheduled for noon CST today, February 7. The briefing, originating at NASA Headquarters, will be shown on Centerwide television and in Morris Auditorium. Immediately following the Administrator's briefing, I will address Marshall employees in Morris Auditorium at approximately 1 p.m. Employees are encouraged to view the budget briefing in Morris Auditorium, and attend the all-hands meeting.

The Space Operations Mission Directorate (SOMD) Summit and Deputy Center Director's Meeting will be held at Stennis Space Center, February 9-11. Charles Chitwood, Robin Henderson, and a few others from the Center will be attending.

The Leadership Council Retreat is scheduled for February 10 at Headquarters.

The Farewell Dinner for Administrator O'Keefe is scheduled for February 10, and the Farewell Ceremony is scheduled for February 11, 2-4 p.m., at the Headquarters Auditorium, with a reception to follow.

The Redesigned Solid Rocket Motor (RSRM) Flight Motor Firing Testing is scheduled for February 17. Charles Chitwood and I will be attending.

DE01/R. Henderson - The Chairman's Award today is presented to Mr. Dave King and the MSFC Team on behalf of Major General James Pillsbury, Chair of the 2004 Tennessee Valley Combined Federal Campaign. This award is presented for not only making the goal of $550K, but for raising a total of $615K for the campaign. MSFC ranked second among 36 area government agencies in dollars raised. In addition, MSFC ranked first in employee participation among the top five employing federal agencies.
